

I just wanted to make it clear that I am very disappointed in your attempt to weaken Indiana's law because The CBA is attempting to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers. This is not only wrong but this is very disappointing on the FCC's end. Please take the concerns of Indiana residents seriously as you would want your concerns taken seriously if this was affecting you.

Thank you.